

Lasting Gifts

The Friends of the Chula Vista Nature Center is an organization that exists to support the Nature Center's environmental education programs and ensure our continuing existence for generations to come. Donors can help support the Friends and the Nature Center by:

- Including the Nature Center in estate planning, thereby becoming a member of the Legacy Society
- Making gifts of assets
- Honoring or memorializing individuals with gifts to the Nature Center
- Giving a lasting gift to the Nature Center's Endowment Fund

☐ I'd like more information on providing an enduring donation to the Friends of the Chula Vista Nature Center, an exempt organization under IRS Code 501(c)(3).

Volunteering

The Nature Center depends on our volunteers to assist with guided nature walks and other programs offered by the Nature Center. If you are 16 years or older, are interested in becoming familiar with native animals and plants, and would like to help others learn about local habitats and the importance of protecting wetlands, please consider becoming a volunteer today!
